

The Anonymity That Is... NOT

Chair 12. Narrative.

Title: Saved Chair (For Those Still Suffering)

This chair looks inviting.

The color is attractive, or at least gets your attention.

It has been well engineered by those before us who have studied well.

Studied a better way...to live.

C'mon in, have a coffee, a piece of cake, a smoke, a cry, a bitch session, a respite from...you.

We'll hold your hand, heart and mind...until you can do that for yourself.

But make no mistake, this...CHAIR... is a VERY uncomfortable place to sit.

There is ALWAYS an empty seat, being saved for the most important person in the world...
the one still out there...suffering.
